

Funny Voice Fluency

Read phrases aloud in a silly voice to encourage fluency and confidence in reading aloud.

Sentence slips have common phrases you will see in your reading. Draw 1 slip from the Sentences.

Character slips have names of people or things you can imitate with your voice. Draw 3-5 Character slips.

Read your phrase aloud in each of the voices. Use the blank slips to create your own prompts.

If you are playing with others, see if they can guess whose voice you are imitating.

Does using a different voice help you express the words more clearly?

Do you find that using different voices helps you better imagine how the words should sound?

Characters

your Mom your Dad your Grandma your Grandpa your Teacher Batman
a dog a snake a parrot

a giant a baby
a police officer an opera singer
the president
a train conductor an elephant a librarian
a zombie

Sentences

I can do it.

I see the sun.

The cat is in the box.

Read a book.

I ate my lunch.

My dog is sad.

The car is over there.

We are playing.

Today I play baseball.

What is that?

Where are we going?

How are you today?

What will you do now?

Why is the sky blue?

Is it really true?

Where is that hat?

Let's go swimming!

I love that book!

Please sit next to me!

That is very good!

We were right!

Sing your song!

