JUDGES

2022 KENT COUNTY TEEN FILM FESTIVAL

ABIGAIL MULONAS — Abigail is a graduate of Specs Howard in Broadcast Media Arts, an aspiring film critic (www.filmscritiqued.com), and a soon-to-be graduate of GRCC in April with an Associates of Arts. They are currently an ABL at KDL, and on top of watching a lot of movies, some of their hobbies include photography, listening to music and reading.

TRICIA HETRICK — Tricia is a GVSU Film & Video alumni who graduated with an emphasis in animation. Her passions include editing and archiving photos and videos. Tricia followed a winding path from filmmaker to librarian to manager of a region of libraries in the KDL system. One of Tricia's proudest achievements in life has been providing a platform for future filmmakers to express themselves and learn their craft by participating in the Kent County Teen Film Festival. Tricia has been a leader of the festival for ten years and is excited to graduate to the new role of judge this year.

SARAH NAWROCKI — Sarah Nawrocki is a community-minded film enthusiast and a Jurassic Park super fan. She is professor of film studies at GVSU, and a freelance film writer. She received her Bachelors in Film & Video Production from Grand Valley State University, and her Master of Fine Arts in Screenwriting at Hollins University in Virginia.

ELIZABETH MERRIMAN — Elizabeth Merriman is a multi-talented media maven and skilled coordinator of chaos who has over a decade of experience in the film industry as a Producer, Production Manager and Costume Designer. She is passionate about the arts, serving her community as a Prop Designer for area theatre companies.
