

Local Indie @KDL

To champion, uplift, and nurture West Michigan talent, Kent District Library proudly presents our Local Indie Collection, available at all branches. This special collection showcases donated books from independent authors, fostering an inclusive environment where local talent can shine.

- Donated materials become KDL's property, following KDL's Materials Selection Policy.
- Items donated that don't circulate regularly may be removed from the collection after one year.
- All items in this collection will be labeled as "Local Indie" and feature the name of the author.
- Unfortunately, at this time, KDL doesn't have a platform for accepting or circulating self-published eBooks or other digital content.

If you prefer, you may print out this form and mail it in with your donations.
